LE GROUPE

Céline Magnano et Charles Coudert, la rencontre entre la musique et le cinéma.

Céline évolue depuis toujours dans la musique et la production. Charles, initialement sportif professionnel, exerce en parallèle l'écriture scénaristique et la réalisation de plusieurs courts et longs métrages. Tous deux d'univers distincts, se rencontrent lors d'une soirée à thème nommée « To The Moon and Back ». Ils en feront leur nom de scène.

De multiples échanges intimes sur leurs expériences de vie ont laissés place à des textes, puis des musiques aux influences venant de leur 2 cultures musicales : pop alternative pour Céline, rock et electro pour Charles. Le tout mis en valeur par la voix douce et sensible de Céline.

Une complémentarité naturelle se développe. Ils composent à deux, Charles en écrit les textes, Céline fait les arrangements sous la direction artistique de Charles.

To The Moon & Back – Unknown

May 13, 2024

From France I have received a proposal full of drama and very good atmospheres, today you will know what happens when cinema and music cross paths, "To The Moon & Back" is a new proposal on the market that distinguished by its Pop sound, when listening to their track "Unknown" we could notice that they create a beautiful sound landscape covered in feeling and drama, they really care about giving us an audiovisual experience with images that reinforce the lyric of the song. for me it is a work of art since his music is only a reflection of the experiences that anyone on this earth could experience, which is why for me it is a beautiful way to find comfort, through penetrating and warm music like the one made by «To The Moon & Back» , don't miss it!

May Music Discoveries

Travis Boyer May 10, 2024

PopFad is back with a batch of six newly discovered songs for you:

To The Moon & Back – Unknown

In advance of their first full-length release, "Memory Box," "Unknown" is the debut single from French pop duo, To The Moon & Back. Celine Magnano captivates with her wistfully aching vocals.

TO THE MOON AND BACK

«Unknown»

Pop

Céline et Charles se sont rencontrés lors d'une soirée nommée "To the Moon and Back", d'où leur pseudonyme. Ce qui devient très fort, c'est que leur musique donne clairement une sensation de voyage très haut, par-delà les nuages. "Unknown" est une merveille de pop atmosphérique, légèrement teintée d'électronique, et superbement portée vocalement par Céline (responsable il y a quelques années de l'incroyable "Et si j'intéresse encore"). Le projet est largement dirigé vers le cinéma, ça tombe bien, "Unknown" est gorgé d'intensité dramatique.

DÉCOUVERTE DU SOUPER | TO THE MOON AND BACK - UNKNOWN

Le tandem français nous arrive avec une chanson pop atmosphérique dotée d'une instrumentation acoustique qui rencontre de subtiles sonorités synthétiques. Ce morceau magnifiquement évocateur rappelle un peu Emily Haines (Metric) ou CocoRosie pour la théâtralité qui émane de l'interprétation vocale féminine. La mise en scène artistique du clip qui accompagne ce titre rehausse à merveille le niveau d'intensité de cette œuvre d'une grande sensibilité.

Today "To The Moon & Back" will play a little with our psyche with its new song, in which it allows us to contemplate a perspective that is on the verge of madness, since the emotional charge it has is truly powerful, it makes that our mind bends and our feelings feel very heavy, this composition is a sound epicenter of Folk and Pop music, with a dramatic and dark tone that is captivating, from the beginning it captures us with harmony to progressively immerse us in traumas and alterations .

"Unknown" is a very captivating song, it makes us feel really shocked and infected by its style, the lyrics crudely reflect life experiences to the point of making us fall into introspection, although its premise is a little disturbing we cannot deny that Its instrumental is fascinating, it quickly leaves us hooked and with soft songs it makes its words resonate in our heads. This experience is a true madness that you will love, so let yourself be carried away by the anguishing interpretation of this ingenious artist right now!

Un excellent travail audiovisuel, laissez-moi vous présenter "To The Moon & Back" un ensemble de deux artistes qui ont vraiment un talent imbattable, "Unknown" est une chanson qui capture des émotions profondes, c'est quelque chose d'inexplicable qui provoque leur musique mais nous pouvons simplement résumer que c'est une beauté qui vous devez écouter et admirer, ne la manquez pas !!
